

Nondiscrimination in Instruction

The school system pledges to avoid discriminatory actions and seeks to foster good human and educational relations, which will help to attain:

1. equal rights and opportunities for students and staff in the school community;
2. equal opportunity for all students to participate in the total school program of the schools;
3. continual study and development of curricula toward improving human relations and understanding and appreciating cultural differences;
4. training opportunities for improving staff ability and responsiveness to educational and social needs;
5. opportunities in educational programs which are broadly available to all students; and
6. an appropriate learning environment for students which includes (1) adequate instructional books, supplies, materials, equipment, staffing, facilities, and technology and (2) a safe school setting.

Each student, at the time he/she becomes eligible for participation, shall be advised of his/her right to an equal opportunity to participate in school programs without discrimination of any kind.
