Discussion

1. Fitness Options

Kate Beeman reported on March in Motion, a fitness option offered to BCS students and staff. Notes on the event are on file.

She plans on addressing the staff about “Pay for Play” options at an upcoming faculty meeting. Kate will work with Sue Carpenter to determine a process for activity proposals.

2. Social Emotional Learning

Marjorie Nusom reported that the Parent Academy on Social and Emotional Learning was well attended and generated additional ideas for future Academies. The presentation materials will be posted online. Jen Searles suggested that presentations be filmed and put on the website for parents who are unable to attend a night presentation.

3. 5K Color Run

Marie Bartels provided the committee with an update on the 5K Color Run. She continues to work with Color Run to plan the event. Marie’s organizational planning notes will be kept on file.

Andrea Hubbard confirmed the ambulance for the event.

Colleen will:

- Ask Brandy to send Color Run a W-9
- Check on Linda Wooster's cell phone number (Photography)
- Check on the status of the Building Use Form - It is at Mr. Davis' level for approval. rrdavis@bethany-Ed.org will approve building use form
- Check with Brandy on who checks should be made out to.

Jen Searles will:

- Follow up on Timers

Marie will communicate with the committee in between meetings via email.

Marie will reach out to Frank Labbate to discuss Fun Run details.

4. Food Trucks

Marie will get an update from chairperson on the status and confirmation of food trucks.
